This qualification reflects the role of individuals who have a range of hospitality service, sales or operational skills. Using discretion and judgement, they work with some independence using plans, policies and procedures to guide work activities. SIT30622 Certificate III in Hospitality provides the practical and theoretical skills needed to work effectively in a hospitality environment. Participants will be required for training one (1) day per month and either be employed full time (40 hours per week), part time (20 hours per week) or school based* (7.6 hours per week) to gain the required workplace skills and knowledge. As part of the Training and Assessment process, students will be required to undertake practical assessments within their workplace or a suitable designated workplace.

*The Queensland Government Department of Employment, Small Business and Training requires the employer to provide the student with a minimum of 750 hours (100 days) of paid employment per 24-month period of the training contract. Over each three-month period, the student must work an average of 7.6 hours per week as a minimum.

^The unit of competency, SITHIND008 Work effectively in hospitality service requires the student to complete 36 complete service periods. The duration of each service period will be up to four (4) hours and is required to cover breakfast, lunch and dinner. If unemployed, it is the student's responsibility to source an appropriate location/venue for this mandatory work placement.

STUDY PATHWAYS

Pathways into the qualification

You may enter SIT30622 Certificate III in Hospitality with limited or no vocational experience and without a lower level qualification. However, it is recommended that you gain industry experience prior to entering the qualification. This course is also available to students who have completed SIT20322 Certificate II in Hospitality.

Pathways from the qualification

After achieving SIT30622 Certificate III in Hospitality, you could progress to the SIT40422 Certificate IV in Hospitality and then SIT50422 Diploma of Hospitality Management. From a Diploma, you could undertake the SIT60322 Advanced Diploma of Hospitality Management qualification.

TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT

Training and assessment is delivered face-to-face for each student in their local area in clustered training sessions. Students must be able to attend these training sessions to complete all units of competency. Students may complete their practical training components in a simulated environment and will be provided all equipment and facilities required to complete the units of competency in this qualification. The theory component will be completed in a classroom environment forming the remaining part of the training schedule.
